A composite image showing the interior of a modern library and a digital library interface. The top half shows a vibrant, colorful children's section with green spiral bookshelves, a wooden moose statue, and a green carpet. The bottom half features a dark teal sidebar with white text: "Welcome!", "Login / Register", the library logo, and the Chinese characters "图书馆". To the right of the sidebar, five lines of text are displayed in a gradient from blue to purple: "Search and Borrow", "The explanation", "Cloud reading", "Personal center", and "Personal center".
